Jedidiah David Bulla

September 2, 1987 – August 3, 2005

Jed, you were...

A beautiful
child...

A joy...

A little brother...

A big brother...

An inspiration...

“WHEN I HEAR FIDDLE TUNES
HE USED TO PLAY,
MY HEART ACHES
FOR JED.”

— Brad Bulla, Jed's father

Seven-year-old Allegra Bulla remembers her brother, Jed, with a song. Jed, a champion fiddler, was killed at age 17 in an underage drinking and driving crash.

A good son...

A friend,
closer than a brother...

A blessing, we miss you Jed...

Jed's Letter - This letter was found in Jed's wallet and was composed sometime shortly before the crash
that took his life.

God, please forgive me
of my sins and help me get my life on track. I need you, God. Please help me, ones I love forgive me God, I accept your judgement and will in my life. I accept all that I receive with a willing heart and with no anger or frustration for I know that all that happens is your plan and your will. let Gods will be done. let your will be done in my life god, please help me get my life in order so I can serve you God, in Jesus' name, Amen.
