

Looking Ahead:
The Future of Click It or Ticket

LifeSavers 2009

Glacieria Mason
NHTSA Office of Communications and Consumer Information
1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE
Washington, DC 20590
(202) 366-5876
glacieria.mason@dot.gov

Role of Communications Supporting
High Visibility Enforcement (HVE)

Policy

Program

Communications

2008
Click It or Ticket Recap

- Law Enforcement Agencies
- National Media Buy
- National Value Added
- State Media Buy
- Earned Media

2009 Click It or Ticket Communication Efforts

- Law Enforcement Flash Drives
- National Media Buy
- New General Market TV Ad
- First Spanish TV Ad
- New National Radio Ads
- New Enforcement Posters
- Earned Media

2009 Click It or Ticket Communication Efforts
continued

- New Alternative Media

Big Monster

Video Guy

Current Successful Approaches

- National Click It or Ticket High Visibility Enforcement Campaign
- Consistent Message Discipline
- Strong Enforcement
- High Brand Recognition Factor

Who's Still Not Buckling Up?

- 18 – 34 Year-old Men
- Young Adults & Teens
- Nighttime Drivers
- Pick-up Truck Drivers & Passengers

Vision for the Future

- Continue the Brand
- Raise the Seat Belt Use Rate
- Garner Support of Law Enforcement

Looking Ahead The Future of CIOT

- CIOT Next Generation
- Teen Seat Belt Demonstration
- Nighttime Seat Belt Enforcement
- Emerging Technology

Summary

- CIOT is Successful
- Maintain the Brand
- Increase Enforcement
- Goal to Reach High Risk Audience

Questions

202-366-9550
www.nhtsa.gov